

Pathway to Multiliteracy Award Application: 2019

Attention Bilingual or Multilingual Students:

If you can listen, speak, read and write in English and at least one another language, we want to recognize you with this special award. To apply for the award, you will need to:

_____ Read at least 10 books in a language other than English. You can do this with help from a bilingual friend, or family member, or even at school. After you read the books, you must complete the log below; AND

_____ Write a one-page essay about the benefits of being bilingual. You can ask your Librarian or Media Specialist for example essays from students who won this award last year.

STUDENT INFORMATION

Your Name:
Grade:	School:
Other than English what language(s) do you speak?	1.
	2.
	3.

READING LOG

Please use the log on the back of this page to keep track of the books you are reading in a language other than English. You can read the books at home with a friend, or family member, or at school. After you finish a book have an adult sign your log. You can ask an adult at home, or even a bilingual family member or friend, or your teacher, or school librarian—anyone who sees you reading. You may include any books you read throughout this school year.

If you read more than 10 books, please ask your teacher or Librarian for a new log, or attach another piece of paper.

BOOK LOG:

Title of Book	Adult Signature Who saw you read this book?
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

ESSAY:

The final part of the application is a one-page essay. Your essay should include 2-3 reasons you think knowing a language other than English is important. Your essay can be typed or handwritten. You may even want to talk to other bilingual people you know about this topic before you begin to write.

When you are finished with your application, including the log and essay, please sign the bottom of this application and submit it to your teacher or librarian by May 15, 2019.

Student Signature